I want to ask you a couple more questions about the verifications department. So if you look back at the first page of Exhibit 1, it shows that there are 18 representatives in Melville, nine representatives in Reno, or at least there were at the time of this document. I don't know what the numbers are today. But is there any difference in the job responsibilities between the representatives in Melville and the representatives in Reno? MR. JONES: Object to the form. A. I don't know. I don't know. I don't believe so. I don't know. I don't believe so. I don't know. BY MR. ACKERMAN: Q. Okay. At the time you were overseeing — at the time of this document, which is around 2014, you were overseeing both the Melville team and the Reno team; is that correct?

Regulatory is really responsible for helping to shape the rules, so to speak, the guidelines, and the verifications team is really responsible for enforcement. So I don't think anything would ever be created by our team without without the regulatory team being the ones to initiate it or, you know, to review it and approve it. BY MR. ACKERMAN: Q. All right. The next heading on this document says Best Practice Sharing. Do you see that? A. Uh-huh. Q. And then it says to share verifications tip sheet? A. Uh-huh. Q. Does that term ring a bell, "verifications tip sheet"? A. It doesn't. It doesn't. Best practice sharing is something it's a	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	BY MR.
